This remarkable lighting piece redefines contemporary elegance, combining age-old Murano glass craftsmanship with cutting-edge design sensibilities.

The chandelier is a modern interpretation of the Rezzonico model, showcasing 18 luminous arms adorned with artistic detailing. Crafted in smoked Murano glass with white accents and a brushed nickel structure, it balances form and function, embodying the harmony of traditional artistry and modern innovation. Each arm transforms into intricate plant-like elements, culminating in radiant glass cups surrounded by undulating corollas and twisted stems.

True to Multiforme's ethos, the chandelier offers infinite possibilities for customization in shape, size, color, and finishes, making it a perfect fit for bespoke luxury interiors.
